A message from President Lyn

Now we can start to have fun!

The first club meeting and board meeting are out of the way, and almost everyone is still standing or at least in the club. Today we have our Club Assembly. Prepare to take a little survey, and I'll explain more about it when we get together. I am also asking you to fill out a recognition form. Recognitions are a big line item in the budget – another thing for you to peruse at this meeting.

The meeting fundraiser is a take on an idea from Mr. Ringness; thank you sir for your suggestion. We're back in raffle mode, but this time the winning ticket will guarantee a prize. The raffle tickets will be the kind that have 25 tickets with the same number, sometimes referred to as Chinese Raffle tickets. The cost for the ticket package is $20. I am asking each one of you to purchase a ticket package.

Each meeting you will see what the raffle prize is and can use as many of your tickets – or none – as you wish. The hard part will be keeping track of your ticket. But then, we can always sell you a new one. So where do these cool raffle prizes come from you might wonder. Again, I'm asking your help. Please donate a prize for the raffle. A gift certificate, a bottle of wine, some home baked dessert, you get the idea. To keep from getting too many perishable items at one time, there will be a sign-up sheet for the date that you are bringing a raffle prize. Confused? It will make sense.

Looking forward to getting your ideas and suggestions on Friday, or any other time for that matter.

Yours In Rotary Service,

Lyn Morlan
President SPRC

Ian H.S. Riseley
President 2017-18
Rotary Club of Sandringham
Victoria, Australia

Ian H.S. Riseley is a chartered accountant and principal of Ian Riseley and Co., a firm he established in 1976. Prior to starting his own firm, he worked in the audit and management consulting divisions of large accounting firms and corporations. His firm specializes in income tax and management advice for individuals and small businesses. He has a master's degree in taxation law and graduate diplomas in accounting and income tax.

Riseley has been a member of the boards of both a private and a public school, a member of the Community Advisory Group for the City of Sandringham, and involved in Sea Scouts and sporting groups, as well as honorary auditor or adviser for a number of charitable organizations.

Riseley's honors include the AusAID Peacebuilder Award from the Australian government in recognition of his work in East Timor, the Medal of the Order of Australia for services to the Australian community, the Distinguished Service Award and the Regional Service Award for a Polio-Free World from The Rotary Foundation.

A Rotarian since 1978, Riseley has served as treasurer, director, Foundation trustee, and member and chair of numerous RI and Foundation committees.

He and his wife, Juliet, a past district governor, are Major Donors and Bequest Society members of The Rotary Foundation. They live on seven hectares at Moorooduc, where they practice their personal philosophy of sustainable and organic living. They have two children and four grandchildren.
